OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

Under the overall authority of the Director of UNESCO Institute for Statistics, overall guidance of the Senior Finance and Administrative Officer, and the direct supervision of the Human Resources Officer, the Senior Human Resources Assistant shall provide administrative, procedural and operational support for the smooth and efficient organization and delivery of HR support activities. Within this context, the incumbent shall provide a full range of office administrative, procedural and operational support, as follows:

- Provides advice, guidance and clearance to sections in the preparation/writing of job descriptions (JDs), terms of reference (TORs) and vacancy notices (VN)s to support the recruitment of all staff and non-staff at the UIS and ensure coherence within the UIS and compliance with the HR rules, policies and provisions.
- Supports recruitment processes for vacant posts or short-term requirements, by preparing vacancy announcements, screening applications, administering written exams, participating in interviews and preparing panel reports.
- Responds to enquiries and provides information and advice to managers and staff on a wide range of administrative HR issues such as conditions of service, administrative procedures, processes and practices, duties and responsibilities, and entitlements.
- Ensures appropriate and timely actions for renewals of contracts, promotions, within-grade increments, and performance evaluations. Develops plans, including timetables, for contract reviews, renewals and terminations; ensures timely notice to staff.
- Monitors and follows up on TULIP (UNESCO’s Online Leave Management System) data/records in coordination with staff members, supervisors, Medical Service and HRM to ensure that all TULIP actions are validated in an appropriate manner. Provides guidance to staff and managers to ensure the appropriate utilization of the tool and the leave related entitlements in line with the applicable rules and provisions.
- Handles non-routine and complex cases, undertaking where necessary research and analysis, and drafts associated correspondence for the supervisor’s signature.
- Manages the on-boarding and off-boarding process by providing briefing/orientation on personnel procedures and requirements, as well as staff entitlements to facilitate quick settling-in and smooth checkout.
- Collects and analyses background information, data and statistics; compiles and prepares documents/forms/memos, reports and correspondence to support the Institute’s HR management, decision taking and processing of HR actions.
- Monitors and verifies post management records; ensures the maintenance of Institute’s organizational charts and staffing tables; prepares reports and trends and supports management in HR planning.
- Ensures the maintenance of the Institute’s electronic database and hard copy records.
• Participates in HR projects and contributes to HR initiatives.
• Other tasks: Perform any additional activities that may be required in support of the mandate of the UIS and to ensure the success of the work team.
